

A 2x2 grid of dark gray squares, each containing a white mathematical operator. The grid is centered on a light gray circular background. The operators are arranged as follows: top-left is addition (+), top-right is subtraction (-), bottom-left is multiplication (x), and bottom-right is division (/).

 $+$ $-$ \times \div